

WORKING WOMEN'S HISTORY PROJECT

501 (C) 3 NFP

The Triangle Shirtwaist Fire at 100 years and the Fight for Worker Safety and Justice

Thursday, April 7, 2011

6:00-8:30PM

Registration & Refreshments 6:00-7:00PM

Program 7:00-8:30PM

Roosevelt University
430 S. Michigan Ave. Chicago, IL.
Congress Lounge 2nd floor

Tickets: $25/$30 at door Students free with current ID

THE 9TH FLOOR DOOR BLOCKED JUSTICE OF THE TRIANGLE FIRE

Play by Mary Bonnett

Performed by
Mary Bonnett, Brigid Duffy*, Paul Odell,
Andrea Santos, Alma Washington*, Ken Morris
(*members of Actors' Equity)

Co-Sponsors:

Roosevelt
University New Deal Studies,
Roosevelt
University
SPEED,
Chicago CLUW
and the American Society of Safety
Engineers

PANEL DISCUSSION

Maribeth Anderson

(Moderator) Regional VP of ASSE

Louise Carr

OSHA Compliance Officer

Jo Ann E. Argersinger

Author of The Triangle Fire: A Brief History with Documents

Susan Hurley

Executive Director, Jobs with Justice

Question and Answer period will follow the presentations

3-5pm, April 7th, everyone is invited to a free Program at Roosevelt University Gage Gallery, 18 S. Michigan Avenue.

"The Fire that Changed America: Triangle at 100 and Importance of Worker Rights" will include speakers on the fire, on Chicago labor activism, and on work safety, poetry readings, and a panel of today's workers. For information, contact amyandtim@aol.com or dhurns@asse.org or 847.768.3413

To PURCHASE TICKETS

Information: jackie@wwhpchicago.org or 773.667.4690

ONLINE WWHPCHICAGO.ORG STUDENTS (free with ID) MUST REGISTER

MAIL WWHP 7521 N. DAMEN AVE. UNIT #KG CHICAGO, IL 60645 CHECKS PAYABLE TO: WWHP

I WANT _____ TICKETS @ $25.00 PER. TICKETS HELD AT DOOR

NAME: _____ PHONE: _____ EMAIL: _____